MAJOR TOPICS

- Creating an Enviable Organizational Culture
- What the Best Leaders Should Know
- Uncovering Talent, Performance & Potential
- Diversity, Equity & Inclusion Strategies
- Transition or Transform? Thriving in Change

All topics can be customized to meet your needs.

Excellence, in any endeavor, does not happen by accident. In today's government agencies where change, culture and organizational problems are unique, excellence must be considered an on-going quest and the focus of time, attention, and financial investment.

As a former State director and employee, Dr. Hamby has the expertise to help your leadership, team members and admin staff tackle the challenges ahead and create new, and unexpected, opportunities that will spur growth.

Customized Services

Leadership/Directors

Developing true leaders in your organization, along with creating an enviable organizational culture, is a massive undertaking. Any crack in your system can be devastating. Dr. Dawn will challenge you to bring your leadership team to another level, while creating a work-family environment that empowers employees to want to bring out their best talents.

Team Members/Employees

Becoming a top-notch employee that brings their A-Game to any department or organization does not happen on its own. Dr. Dawn will give you the tools and strategies you need to bring your talents to the forefront, ensuring not only that your goals are met, but that you are empowered to problem solve and think creatively, while feeling valued and renewing your passion for your work.

Administrative Staff

As a frontline worker, you are often the face of your organization and set the tone for both the internal and external culture of the institution. Dr. Dawn gives you the tools to move forward, the inspiration to pursue more, and the secret to thriving in a fast-paced environment.
